RICS

MERIT AWARDS FOR CRAFTSMANSHIP 2017 Established for more than 25 years ENTRY FORM (Closing Date for entries 31st May 2017)

The Leicestershire Joint Consultative Committee for the Building Industry, through its constituent members, The Leicestershire and Rutland Society of Architects, the East Midlands Branch of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, the Association for Consultancy and Engineering and the National Federation of Builders makes annual merit awards for craftsmanship.

Awards, which are not competitive, or limited in number, are made in two classes:

1. For excellence of workmanship throughout an entire building or development.
2. For individual work of craftsmanship i.e. one trade or element in a building.

Entries, on this form may be submitted by any connected party, but will not be accepted unless fully completed and accompanied by the appropriate fee. All entries must be submitted or endorsed by the Client, the Architect and the Builder and should relate to work completed in the Counties of Leicestershire and Rutland within the last two years.

It is emphasized that design in no way influences the assessors, entries are judged solely on craftsmanship all aspects of which will be taken into account in assessing each award.

Please note that the closing date for entries this year is to 31 May 2017 with judging taking place on Wednesday 28 June 2017.

Recipients of an award in 2016 were:
